436. What does "Decalogue" mean?

Decalogue means "ten words" (Exodus 34:28). These words sum up the Law given by God to the people of Israel in the context of the Covenant mediated by Moses. This Decalogue, in presenting the commandments of the love of God (The first three) and of one's neighbour (the other seven), traces for the chosen people and for every person in particular the path to a life freed from the slavery of sin".

Catholic Voice is now available in the Churches. It carries some interesting articles: Youth – belong, believe, become; Joy of the Gospel, Religious freedom ...

Plenary Council Prayer Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart of hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen. Our lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.
