The Lord Who Has Wiped Out Our Past Sinfulness:

The utter completeness of Christ's forgiveness is almost incredible. When he says to us 'Neither do I condemn you', the past is dead, snuffed out like a wick, forgotten. Laughter and song fill our hearts. It seems like a dream.

Thomas Merton. "We can have the mercy of God whenever we want it, by being merciful to others: for it is God's mercy that acts on them, through us, when He leads us to treat them as He is treating us. His mercy sanctifies our own poverty by the compassion that we feel for their poverty, as if it was our own. And this is a created reflection of His own divine compassion, in our own souls. Therefore, it destroys our sins, in the very act by which we overlook and forgive the sins of others."

Estia Nursing Mass. Wednesday 10 April at 10.30am. Please come and pray with the residents.

Daylight Saving finishes this Sunday morning 7 April. Please put your clock back one hour before Saturday bed time.

"The Eucharist .. is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak". (Evangelii Gaudium (2013) 47)

Magnolia Flowers, speak its own beauty. It symbolizes dignity and Nobility. We would like to bring this beauty to our gardens or in pot plants of Parishioners. If you would like to receive a magnolia plant as a gift from the Parishes please put your names down on the list in the church by Sunday 7th April. Those who have received a plant from the Parishes there is no need to do so. Thank you very much.

Responsorial Psalms of Lenten Sundays. We will sing the Psalms instead. A practice will take place before Mass. The music of the Psalms is taken from this year's Lenten Program, from the Wollongong Diocese.

370. What are the passions? The passions are the feelings, the emotion or the movements of the sensible appetite – natural components of human psychology – incline a person to act or not to act in view of what is perceived as good or evil. The principal passions are love and hatred, desire and fear, joy, sadness, and anger. The chief passion is love which is drawn by the attraction of the good. One can only love what is good, real or apparent.
