EASTER TIME: The fifty days from Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one 'great Sunday'. These are the days above all others in which the Alleluia is sung. The Sundays of this time of year are considered to be Sundays of Easter.

THOMAS MERTON. "Every moment and every event of every man's life on earth plants something in his soul. For just as the wind carries thousands of winged seeds so each moment brings with it germs of spiritual vitality that come to rest imperceptibly in the minds and wills of men. Most of these unnumbered seeds perish and are lost, because men are not prepared to receive them: for such seeds as these cannot spring up anywhere except in the good soil of freedom, spontaneity, and love."

THANKSGIVING AND DEDICATION DAY Please keep your book free for this very significant celebration of our community of Narooma. Its marks a heartfelt thanks to God's grace and to all well giving dedications who have made our Parish alive.

A dinner will follow after the Pentecost Sunday 9:30am mass at Narooma. It will be held at Club Narooma commencing at 12:00noon at a cost of $32.00 per head.

Everyone is welcome so please come and join in this celebration. Please put your name down on the list in the church.

To help us to name different ministries (works) in the life of our Parish, please send a note to Father Joe and let him know what you are doing or have done in supporting the parishes. Thanks

CATHOLIC VOICE FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE Please make sure you don't miss this month's issue: A Marian Procession at Cobargo; What are our shepherds up to? Papal honours for Kevin and Margaret Croker ...

ANNIVERSARIES OF ORDINATION This year our Archdiocese joins Archbishop Meritus Carroll and Fr. Neville Drinkwater in celebrating their 65th anniversary of their Priesthood Ordination, Frs Peter Gannon and Laurie Black for their 50th and Frs Allan Crowe and Peter My for their 25th. We join them to thank God graciously for giving us the priesthood. Please keep all our priests and bishops in our prayers.

PRIESTS' MEETING AT GALONG It was an excellent meeting this year which dealt with the important issues related to the new legislation of the ACT and NSW governments on Child Protection. How priests, both good citizens and faithful church ministers, are to deal with the sacrament of Confession and the legal requirement to report to Police any abused cases that are notified.

A lot of work needs to be done to study further on this issue. Please keep priests in our prayers.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION Alice Young will be receiving her First Holy Communion on Sunday 23rd June at 9:30am mass. We will be celebrating with a morning tea after mass so please bring a plate.

CUPPA NEXT WEEKEND AT NAROOMA after mass next Sunday. If you are able please bring along a plate to share.

PRAYER OF COMMISSIONING Take the Body of Christ to share with those who are sick and housebound. May his presence in the Eucharist strengthen them in peace and joy, through Christ our Lord. Amen
