Rest In Peace

We pray that God may welcome into glory those of our family and friends who have departed this life, especially Doreen May Beath, mother of Fr Greg Beath, Terry Dukes, Mary Sellick, Lynne Van der Sterren, and Stephen Costigan.

Please pray for the people who are sick in our Parish especially:

Frank Byrne, Barbara Kirk, Aart Kop, Joan Talbot, Judy Lewis, Joan Ranken, Narelle Connaughton, Norman Collins, Eunice Priestley, Reg Corbett, Marie McLean, Fr Kevin Murphy, Barry Stephens, Justin and Kylie, Lori-Anne Foran, Catherine Hulse, Sylvia Heffernan, Pat Anderson and Debbie Morris.

If you have recovered from an illness and no longer wish to be on the prayer list, please let me know.

We remember Patricia Byrne on the anniversary of her death and keep Fr Dominic and his family in our prayers.

Message from Fr Dominic:

The Kingdom of God is actually Jesus himself and His will. His desire is for us to live attuned to His creative will...that we are willing what he is willing. He always wills life...this is the growing field in today's Gospel. Each seed has within it the pattern of God's will. We also must produce fruit...this fruit must be food for God and for others...and not choke them off...not constrict life...instead it must encourage what God has created, which is just what God is wanting. Every seed has the potential for life...it just needs to be nourished and nurtured. We hear much about the word of God, but do His words shape your own words in such a way that you can say, with much intent, that you also aim to touch people so that they grow from the care shown them? If God's words shape your own words then His care will shape your own care. "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me" (Mt. 25: 40).

PILGRIMAGE TO EDEN

St Mary of the Cross Mackillop had a great affection for the Eden people. Her mother, Flora drowned off the coast of Eden and the people of the time offered reverence and respect to her body, as they waited for the family to come from Sydney. Mary Mackillop never forgot their generosity. Even till this day there has been the ongoing presence of the Josephite Sisters in Eden. Fr James Anthony invites you to come on a pilgrimage to Eden, to join him in mass at 12noon on Saturday 12th August.
