This week's message

The image of the shepherd carrying the lamb across his shoulders and neck reveals to us that Jesus has lifted the yoke, that was a wooden cross, and replaced it with living flesh. We now carry a new nature, it is actually our nature to be like the Lamb. This is how His gentle and humble nature has been truly revealed and given to us. Jesus says, 'come to me all who are overburdened' because he wants us all to live a spirit filled, faith driven life. Humanity had been carrying a yoke, an oppressive wooden cross, preventing us from entering the kingdom. This cross has had a selfish, distant nature to it. Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension has lifted this wooden hearted nature from us and, filled by His spirit, we have true hearts of flesh and can have divine lives.

Fr Dominic
