Rest In Peace

We pray that God may welcome into glory those of our family and friends who have departed this life.

Please pray for the people who are sick in our Parish especially:

Frank Byrne, Barbara Kirk, Aart Kop, Joan Talbot, Joan Ranken, Narelle Connaughton, Norman Collins, Eunice Priestley, Reg Corbett, Fr Kevin Murphy, Barry Stephens, Justin and Kylie, Lori-Anne Foran, Catherine Hulse, Sylvia Hefferman, Debbie Morris, Gerri Maynard, Steve Murray, Julie Wiggins and Gwen McGregor.

If you have recovered from an illness and no longer wish to be on the prayer list, please let me know.

We can see just how rich this King really is. He does not really need what is owed to him. He has given from what he has in abundance. He has an oversupply of riches and is a little like God himself. Despite being well off, justice demands that he is given back what he is owed. When a King shows mercy, as this one has, he demonstrates that he also has this in abundance. We can see that he is truly rich. The servant that was not able to be inspired by his generosity, that was blind to his generosity, was always going to be poor. Working at having an open heart can be fostered by having a prayer life that gives you greater inner emotional awareness. By being centred throughout the day you can be inspired by compassion and mercy that comes your way.

Fr Dominic Byrne.

Please find a Pastoral Statement from Archbishop Christopher Prowse regarding same-sex marriage in the foyer for you to take home.
