We do not really need to be reminded, as the first reading does, that we have Jesus who is the prophet with words placed in his mouth by the true, living God. But there are those people who come to Mass on Sundays and then there are those who come to Mass at every opportunity. Mindful of Jesus' living presence, if Jesus walked into Church during Mass when would you leave?

Submissions for Protection of Religious Freedom

Last month, Prime Minister Turnbull announced the creation of a Review to be led by Philip Ruddock. It will consider 'the intersections between the enjoyment of the freedom of religion and other human rights'. It is important for individuals and groups to voice their concerns by making written submissions. The Panel strongly encourages the use of the online submission form, which can be found at <https://pmc.gov.au/domestic-policy/religious-freedom-review/submission>. All submissions must be received by 14 February 2018. For more information go to: <http://cgatholic.org.au/2018/01/protection-religious-freedom>.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes with which Christ looks out his compassion to the world. Yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now.
