Back to School

It has been five weeks of quietness around school premises with the summer holidays. Streets around schools went silent. No buses with kids hopping up and down; school zones' advisory notices were taken down, allowing drivers more speed. The presence of parents who usually accompany their children to the school gate in the morning and back to the vehicles in the afternoon with intimate conversations including telling the kids to behave themselves and parting with kisses of love, all vanished!

Thank goodness, the holiday is ended and back to school! We enjoyed the silence, but missed your presence.

The end of school holiday can be very relieving and rewarding. It is relieving for parents who now have more time for other things as kids get back to school and rewarding for the kids as they reconnect with friends with tales of the holiday and new learning opportunities. How about the teachers? I leave the answers to your imagination.

We joyfully welcome the school, a vital part of our Parish Community back on board. Indeed, we are grateful to parents for looking after the kids during the holidays and the teachers for bracing up for the best as always.

2018 is declared by the Church in Australia as The Year of the Youth with special focus on the Young, Faith and Vocational Discernment. To connect with this, a good number of our kids will be receiving different sacraments this year among other things. To enable a fruitful year, I would like to invite all stakeholders: Parents, Teachers and Members of the Parish Community to support the children in their journey through the year.

Let us go beyond living something for them by living something in them.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes with which Christ looks out his compassion to the world. Yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now.
