Renewal Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)

The present PPC is up for renewal in April this year.

Some important information about the Parish Pastoral Council will be provided in the parish bulletin over the next three weeks, leading to nominations for PPC on Sunday 28th April.

PPC members are:

The Parish Priest and Parishioners chosen by the parish community.

PPC Role:

Working with and assisting the parish priest in building community.

Function of PPC:

Provide opportunities for parishioners to grow in their faith through ministries.

This is achieved by coordinating the parish ministries and responding to ideas, for the good of the parish community.

Parish School:

The school and the religious education programs are integral parts of the ministerial life of the entire parish.

On Wednesday 10th April, in our Church, at 6pm, we will be celebrating twenty-one Children making their First Holy Communion.

Father Joe and Angelina both headed home on Tuesday to be with their family due to the death of Fr Joe's mum, Angelina's grandmother. Here is a short message from Fr Joe:

Today is a most difficult day for me. While it is my birthday, it is very hard to celebrate a birthday while the mother who bore you, is in the coffin. I will be home and see her for the last time on this very day, the day I was born. It is hard and painful. My birthday and her departure will be remembered forever.

However she has gone the rest with God. Theresia Beli that all of us long for. Thank you, my dearest and most beautiful mother. I pray that you may rest in peace. Amen. 🙏💙💙

Thank you all for your prayers and support. God bless. Fr Joe

While Fr Joe is away, we are very lucky to have Fr Kuriakose Chennelil Joseph with us. More commonly known as Fr Kose (pronounced Kosh).

Once again, I apologise for the different style bulletin this week. Once we get a new modem next week we should be back to normal.

This verse is a great comfort & strength to us all.
