Last weekend we celebrated Grandparents and the Elderly Day. What a wonderful celebration to have. Pope Francis spoke in depth on the day about cherishing these beautiful people and of the importance for maintaining relationships with them.

"Grandparents and the elderly are not leftovers from life, scraps to be discarded," Pope Francis wrote. "They are a precious source of nourishment," he wrote.

I absolutely loved the above statement and thought it was worth sharing.

I know I am 'one lucky girl' to have such amazing elderly around me, they provide my family and me a constant source of nourishment.
