The St Vincent de Paul Boorowa conference is conducting its annual Ozanam Sunday Appeal for our twinned Conferences on September 21st.

Twinning supports out fellow Vincentians in developing countries spiritually, financially and through mutual encouragement.

Ozanam Sunday celebrates the feast day of Blessed Frederic Ozanam, founder of the St Vincent de Paul.

Once again, we are asking for your support. If you can make a small donation to our collection baskets after mass on the 21st of September it would be much appreciated.

WHY EVERY CATHOLIC HOME NEEDS A CRUCIFIX

1. A SIGN OF CHRIST'S SACRIFICE

The crucifix reminds us of the greatest act of love in history—Jesus dying on the Cross for our salvation. Each time we look at it, we are drawn back to the heart of our faith: the mystery of the Cross that opened the gates of Heaven.

2. A SOURCE OF PROTECTION

Throughout Church tradition, the crucifix has been a powerful sacramental, bringing blessings and spiritual protection. Evil trembles before the sign of the Cross, and many saints have testified that a crucifix in the home keeps away spiritual harm.

3. A DAILY CALL TO PRAYER

When we see the crucifix in our home, we are reminded to pray, to forgive, and to live with faith. It inspires us to unite our sufferings with Christ's and to live withope.

4. A TEACHING TOOL FOR FAMILIES

For children, the crucifix is a living catechism. It becomes an opportunity to explain the meaning of Christ's sacrifice and to pass on the Catholic faith in a visual and powerful way.

5. A MARK OF CATHOLIC IDENTITY

Having a crucifix in the home is a bold declaration of our faith. It tells anyone who enters that this family belongs to Christ and that this home is under His protection and guidance.

A home without a crucifix can feel empty of this sacred sign. By placing one in our living room, bedroom, or prayer corner, we proclaim that Jesus Christ is the center of our lives.

✠ Let the crucifix be the heartbeat of your home, a constant source of strength, love, and peace.

Parish Safeguarding Commitment: St Patrick's Parish is committed to safeguarding and upholding the dignity and rights of all of our children and vulnerable people. If any parishioner has any concerns about the above, please email St Patrick's Safeguarding officer-Carmel Barnes boorowa.safeguarding@cg.org.au or IPPS@cg.org.au

" Jesus reveals the essence of true hope. The firm conviction that even in the midst of violence, injustice and suffering, GOD's love is ever present as a source of spiritual fruitfulness and the promise of eternal life. The way that Jesus exercised his freedom in the face of death teaches us not to fear suffering, but to persevere in confident trust in God's providential care."

Pope Leo XIV

Why was the maths book so sad?

It had too many problems.

Not all maths puns are bad just sum of them.

Dear Parish family,

We are truly thankful for the gift of the priesthood and the calling of young men to serve in this sacred ministry. It is a special blessing for those chosen for this path, and we are excited to welcome Deacon Vuong who will be training with our Young Mission. Deacon Vuong, from the C.Ss.R. religious order and the Galong monastery, will begin his pastoral ministry on September 20th. In preparation for his arrival, we invite you to join us for a morning tea on September 21st, following the 10 AM Mass at St Mary's Young parish centre. This gathering will be a wonderful opportunity to extend a warm welcome to Deacon Vuong as he embarks on this significant journey. As Scripture reminds us, "Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God" (Romans 15:7). We kindly ask each of you to bring a plate to share for the morning tea. Let us come together to make this occasion memorable and filled with stewardship, reflecting the words of 1 Peter 4:10: "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace." Thank you for your support, and we look forward to celebrating together.

With hope in Christ,
Fr. Jiss
