Serenity

Prayer

O God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time. Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace. Taking, as he did, the sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that he will make all things right if I surrender to His will; that I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever. Amen

Arthur is 75 years old and played golf every day since his retirement 15 years ago.

One day he arrives home looking downcast. "That's it," he tells his wife. "I'm giving up golf. My eyesight has become so bad that once I hit the ball I couldn't see where it went."

His wife sympathises and makes him a cup of tea. As they sit down she says, "Why don't you take my brother with you and give it one more try."

"That's no good," sighs Arthur, "your brother is 85. He can't help."

"He may be 85," says the wife, "but his eyesight is perfect." So the next day Arthur heads off to the golf course with his brother-in-law.

He tees up, takes a mighty swing and squints down the fairway. He turns to the brother-in-law and says, "Did you see the ball?"

"Of course I did!" Answers the brother-in-law. "I have perfect eyesight."

"Where did it go?" Arthur asks.

"I don't remember."

Hope is not a granted wish or a favour performed; it is far greater than that. It is zany, unpredictable dependence on a God who loves to surprise us out of our socks.
