DEACON MARK HA

Hello parishioners,

It is with great pleasure that I introduce myself to you all. My name is Mark Ha. I am a new Deacon to the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn. Archbishop Prowse has appointed me to serve in the beautiful Young Mission for my diaconate, and I am humbled and excited to be here. I was born in Vietnam and grew up with two older brothers. After completing my schooling in Vietnam, I moved to Canberra in mid-winter ten years ago to pursue my Bachelor of Accounting at the University of Canberra.

During my second year of university, I felt a calling to become a priest, but God had a different plan for me. He wanted me to gain some life experiences and work in different jobs and companies before entering the Seminary of the Good Shepherd in Sydney in 2017. After seven years of formation, I was ordained as a transitional Deacon on 3rd November, 2023, which was a significant step towards my priestly ordination in the near future.

To sum up my vocation, from my childhood, I have always been searching for the feelings of inner peace in every situation. Therefore, prayer is always my priority. It helps me stay focused on my relationship with God and brings me closer to building relationships with others. I hope we can share our journey of faith together and support each other through our prayers.

Thank you for the warm welcome, and I look forward to getting to know each and every one of you.

God bless you all,
Deacon Mark Ha
