Child Protection

Code of Conduct Acknowledgment

The Child Protection Code of Conduct informs and reminds all employees and volunteers of the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn of the standards of behaviour as well as other requirements that must be adhered to when working with children.

All clergy, employees and volunteers within Parishes, regardless of whether they work with children, are asked to sign the declaration to the Code found below, and return to their Parish secretary. The declaration is to be signed every three years.

Please access form at the following link:

<https://cgatholic.org.au/professional-standards/child-protection-code-of-conduct/>

Alternatively, there are copies at the back of the church.

Thank you for your cooperation ☺

Rather than begrudge your problem, explore it. Ponder it. And most of all, use it.
Use it to the glory of God.

A woman goes to the vet with her pig that appears to be sleeping. The woman waits as the vet inspects the pig. The vet then says "I'm sorry but your pig is dead". The woman, shocked, yells at the vet "are you serious?! Did you run tests? He could be asleep or in a coma". The vet sighs, leaves the room and comes back with a dog. The dog approaches the pig and slowly sniffs it from head to toe. He looks up at the woman with sad eyes and walks out. The vet leaves the room and comes back with a cat. The cat stares at the pig for a solid 5 minutes. It then meows loudly and slowly exits the room. The vet tells the woman, "See your pig has definitely passed on." The vet then hands the woman a bill for $300. The woman is outraged, "$300 just so you could tell me my piggy died?" The vet replies, "It was only $ 40 until you made me get a Lab report and Cat scan."
