BUS FOR DEACON MARK 'S ORDINATION

Great news!

We have booked a luxurious coach to travel to Canberra and back the same day where everyone can relax and not worry about driving.

The bigger bus (57 seater) will cost $2,030 -00, so there is still seats available for anyone who didn't put their name down previously. The sheet will be available at the back of the church for any new names who want to join us.

If you are happy to be part of this significant celebration, please make a donation or pay $35 -00 for a seat.

If we don't get 57 people, the Young Mission is happy to subsidise the shortfall.

Look out for the great performer, Fr Jiss, who will come up with some great jokes and games to entertain you!

Why can't a T-Rex clap their hands?

Because they're extinct.

Parish Safeguarding Commitment: St Patrick's Parish is committed to safeguarding and upholding the dignity and rights of all of our children and vulnerable people. If any parishioner has any concerns about the above, please email St Patrick's Safeguarding officer-Carmel Barnes
