Growing in Life in the Divine Will

Presented by: Fr Hugh Thomas C.Ss.R and Fr Emil Milat

When: Oct. 14-16

Jesus said of His mission; "I come to do your Will". In Gethsemani He prayed to the Father in His great difficulty; "Not My Will but Yours be done". We all need to grow in living in the Divine Will. Fr. Hugh Thomas C.Ss.R. and Fr. Emil Milat, Parish Priest of Central Canberra, are both experienced retreat masters.

This retreat could be a life changing experience. Open to anyone who wants to know more about how to live in the Divine Will. They will introduce you to amazing revelations to the 20th century mystic, Luisa Piccarreta, who survived just on Holy Communion for about 60 years of her life.

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you.

Presented by: Presented by Fr Hugh Thomas CSsR and Fr Tony Alex MGL

When: Oct. 21-23

Fr Hugh has been active in charismatic renewal since 1973 and has led many retreats and Life in the Spirit Seminars in several countries, including the USA. Fr Tony is a member of the Missionaries of God's Love (MLG). He is currently at the MGL Sydney Mission. He serves the parishes of St Declan's, Penhurst and Our Lady of Fatima, Peakhurst. Along with his parish duties, he helps groups with retreats, days of reconciliation and healing services. A powerful experience for people new to charismatic renewal, which Pope Francis calls "a current of grace" for the Church of today. A time for fresh anointing and renewal for old timers. The retreat will include prayer ministry to receive healing and the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Ensuite Room $350. Shared facilities $300

A young lady was waiting for her flight in the boarding room of a big airport.

As she would need to wait for a long time, she decided to buy a book to read and a packet of cookies to snack on. She sat down in an armchair in the VIP room of the airport to relax and read in peace.

A man sat down in the next seat, opened his magazine and started reading. When she took out the first cookie, the man took one also.

She felt irritated but said nothing. She just thought: "What a nerve! If I wasn't so nice, I would blacken his eye."

For each cookie she took, the man took one too. This was infuriating her but she didn't want to cause a scene.

When only one cookie remained, she thought: "Aaah... What will this rude man do now?"

Then the man, taking the last cookie, divided it into half, giving her one-half. That was too much! She was really angry now.

In a huff, she took her book, the rest of her things and stormed off to the boarding place.

For the next hours, she found it hard to forget what happened.

She couldn't even focus reading her book. How dare that guy, right?

When she sat down in her seat on the plane, she looked into her purse to take out her reading glasses, and to her surprise, her packet of cookies was there, untouched and unopened.

She felt so ashamed. She realized that she was wrong. She had forgotten that her cookies were kept in her purse.

The man had divided his cookies with her, without feeling angered or bitter, while she had been very angry, thinking that she was dividing her cookies with him.

And now there was no chance to explain herself... nor to apologize. Have you ever lost your cool and then realized later that you were in the wrong?

I'm sure that most of us have. Let's save ourselves some embarrassment and make sure that we are in possession of all of the facts before reacting.

There are four things you can never recover...

The stone after the throw;
The word after it's said; The occasion after the loss,
and The time after it's gone.

What did the right eye say to the left eye?
Between you and me something smells.
