Bungendore Rodeo and Cake Stall

The Cake Stall made over $1,200. Another great contribution from Gennie Cramsie and Tina Kelly. You both do a marvellous job of co-ordinating this event and also a massive thank you, to you the parishioners who kindly donated goods to be sold. Fantastic effort one and all.

The morning of the Rodeo was bright and sunny but unfortunately the wind came up mid afternoon and covered everyone in dust (even the food)!

The committee sincerely thank all the workers who helped out at the working bees and on the day. The Food and alcohol Stalls were busy all day and the band of workers were marvellous in keeping the queues small. Well done!

A huge Thank you to the small band of workers who help prepare the grounds in prior weeks to the big day. Without you the grounds and amenities wouldn't look as good nor work so well. A big congratulations.

Thank you, St Mary's – once again you prove to be the champions of volunteering

Plenary Council 2020

Listen to what the Spirit is saying

Thursday 22nd November in St Mary's Hall at 7:30pm plenary council discussion.
Jacinta Carroll will be the facilitator of the evening.
The format will be:-

- We would like people to give some thought beforehand to what they want to say and to bring with them a short written statement. We will scan these to provide a base to work on a submission
- An introductory session by Shane Dwyer, who is a consultant to the plenary council executive committee, to provide some background information on the plenary council and the lead-up processes
- Discussion at each table centering on the question
"What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"
Please listen respectfully to everyone's ideas. It's quite likely that the Holy Spirit may lead you to hear something you hadn't thought of yourself
- Summing up by the facilitator
- Any necessary arrangements for further meetings / smaller gatherings needed to finalise our submission.

So get your thinking caps on!

November Remembrance Book

The November Remembrance folder is available in the Church porch for parishioners wishing to write in the names of deceased loved ones. November Offering envelopes are also available. If you prefer you may write names on a November Offering envelope and I'll add them to the folder.
