Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First reading

Is 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.
By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second reading

Heb 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mk 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord
are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

A Message from Father Mick Burke

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We will be opening up slowly this weekend with the Vigil Mass at St Bede's School hall at 6pm and 8.30am at St Mary's Bungendore. As I have been blocked from trusting our parishioners, those who attend will need proof of double vaccination, this doesn't apply the following Sunday.

Next Tuesday there will be a Requiem Mass in Braidwood for Norma Flack, a person of great faith. We looked at possible venues for the funeral but couldn't find anything suitable, as a result there will be a team needed to clean the church from the dust and debris before the Mass. I am extremely grateful to Brother Brian for organizing both the school hall and the funeral for Norma. On Wednesday we will resume the 9am Mass at St Mary's.

On Sunday the 24th October there will be Mass at Gundaroo at 10.30am but the following Sunday the Krawarree Mass is cancelled due to numbers and the size of the building.

I have been in contact with the team from MenAlive and they are planning for a weekend beginning the 25th March 2022. Last weekend David Webster suggested we plan for a St Mary's Fair in March which sounds like a great idea.

Looking forward to gathering together after this extended lockdown. Continue to pray for our communities,

Yours in Christ,

Mick Burke

News from the Archdiocese and beyond

On Sunday, Pope Francis celebrated Mass to mark the global launch of the Synod of Bishops with the theme For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission. In dioceses around the world, local launches will take place this coming weekend, ushering in a period of local consultation that will assist with the two-year process that will culminate in the Synod of Bishops gathering in Rome in October 2023.

Synod of Bishops: On Sunday, October 17, dioceses around the world will launch local preparations for the Synod of Bishops, which has the theme: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission". The Catholic Church in Australia will invite the People of God to make submissions via an online portal that will open on October 17. Those submissions will help the Bishops develop a national report to support the global process leading to an international gathering in 2023. Monday 18th Feast of St Luke

St Luke the evangelist was a Gentile Greek who practised medicine. He was the author of the Gospel which bears his name and also wrote a history of the early church; The Acts of the Apostles. He travelled with St Paul; together they evangelised Greece and Rome. He was also with St Paul during his ill-fated voyage to Italy. His Gospel is largely based on St Paul's teachings as well as his own experiences. Legend has it that St Luke was also a painter of great talent who did portraits of the Blessed Virgin, but no existing paintings have ever been correctly attributed to him. It is true, however, that his Gospel has inspired many artists, which led to his patronage of artists as well as doctors and surgeons.
