Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Due to significant misinformation in our community regarding the $1.6million grant to the pre-school and the presumption that a permanent building can be built on our land, we have a serious issue on our hands. Our liability as a community must be safeguarded and this is being handled by Helen Delahunty and the Trustees of the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn. In fact some weeks ago the Trustees requested clarification on a number of conditions for acceptance of the grant, and we are still awaiting a response from the pre-school.

For 42 years, the old St. Mary's school was rented on a peppercorn rate by the Bungendore Pre-School. As a matter of justice and with responsible oversight for the needs of our own community confronting increased costs and maintenance issues, it was decided to review the rent on this property. The Pre-School were informed of a end of period rent review when the lease was renewed five years ago.

Due to an increase in applicants for places at the pre-school we were asked permission to put a transportable on our land and there was an in-principle agreement with certain conditions. At our last meeting with the pre-school, held almost two months ago, we were presented with plans of a permanent building from an architect in Canberra and were informed they were to receive a grant from the NSW Government. Neither your Finance Council, nor the Trustees of Canberra Goulburn had any knowledge of what was going on, nor had we been consulted.

It is our hope we might in good faith work for an outcome beneficial to both parties, but at this stage there is much to be done.

In November at Braidwood Mick Dodson will speak on the subject of 'the Voice' for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders in Parliament.

Yours in Christ,

Mick Burke

The Parish of St Mary's, Bungendore acknowledges the Ngunnawal and Ngambri people, the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for many thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation.

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established,
and there is none that can resist your will.
For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth,
and all that is held within the circle of heaven;
you are the Lord of all.

First reading

Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me,
why do you look on where there is tyranny?
Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
all is contention, and discord flourishes.
Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down,
inscribe it on tablets
to be easily read,
since this vision is for its own time only:
eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
if it comes slowly, wait,
for come it will, without fail.
See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,
but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) *If today you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts.*

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)

Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us
for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)

O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

Second reading

2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted
and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"?
Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"?
Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants:
we have done no more than our duty."' "

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

Reflection

In our struggles to be faithful disciples, we frequently must endure periods when we feel abandoned by God. When we have been intent on serving God with genuine devotion, such times are particularly trying, for one would expect that God would not withdraw consolations. When this happens, the broken heart and the strained spirit cry out to God in complaint: How long? Why? We have all been worn down by life, tempted to give up, too weary to go on.

Faith in God is a gift for which we pray. It enables us to accomplish marvellous feats; with it we can move mountains. As unprofitable servants, we do not earn it; we have no right to claim it as our own. We are the ones from whom faithful service will be expected. We will be sent to plough the fields and tend the sheep. We will be called to serve at table.

The faith that is ours has been mediated to us through the community. We have heard about God and about Jesus from others, from our parents and families, from our teachers and those who preach, from those with whom we work and play. Faith comes from God, but through the mediation of the community. Timothy received faith from his mother and grandmother. It was strengthened in him through the imposition of Paul's hands and through his preaching of the word of God. Furthermore, what Paul taught had first been handed down to him from those who preceded him.
