Reflection - Today's readings focus on themes of trust, resurrection, and true happiness. They highlight the importance of relying on God and the hope found in Jesus Christ's resurrection. They remind us that true happiness is found in faith and reliance on God, not in worldly things.

Trust in God: Jeremiah warns against trusting in human strength and calls for trust in God. True happiness comes from relying on God, not on ourselves.

True Happiness: In Luke, Jesus teaches about the blessings of the poor and hungry. He contrasts their future joy with the sorrow of the rich and satisfied.

Warnings of Woe: Jesus warns those who are rich, full, and laughing now. Their comfort is temporary, and they need to seek true happiness in God.

Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.

Luke 6:20

Catholics have been invited to embark on a journey of faith and transformation as the Jubilee Year of Hope begins around the world. A Jubilee Year, proclaimed every 25 years, is a special year set aside to encourage pilgrimage, repentance and spiritual renewal. The theme for this year, chosen by Pope Francis, is ‘Pilgrims of Hope.’ “Hope does not disappoint,” the Holy Father said, urging the faithful to rediscover the value of pilgrimage and uncover the signs of hope by getting involved in Works of Mercy.

You can find out more about the Pilgrims of Hope Jubilee by going to <https://www.catholicvoice.org.au/daily-voice/> and follow the links. There you can watch a video posted by Archbishop Prowse about the Jubilee Year and the pilgrimage in our Parish.

Lent

With Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent fast approaching you might like to give consideration to how your Lenten journey will take place this year. Lent is a call to holiness. It encourages us to look honestly at our lives, Lent is a time to listen more intently to the Word of God and enable it to penetrate our hearts.
