Reflection

'You shall love the Lord your God.' The commandment to love God with all one's being is kept constantly before the Jewish people. It is recited daily in prayer; and, written on a small scroll, it is worn on their person and enshrined at the entrance to their homes. To observe this commandment our love must embrace the whole of creation, especially our fellow human beings made in God's image.

Ritual of Remembrance

Today we remember in a special way those who have died during the year, especially the recently deceased; Meg, Barry and Nikki as well as our deceased families and friends:

*For those who have gone before us,
Seeds planted in your rich pasture
With the hope of life eternal.
May their enduring spirit live on,
Enriching and empowering our lives,
Their love linger, their presence be near,
Until we meet once more.*

HSC

Let us continue to remember Zach, Jeromy and all HSC students in our prayers.

Welcome

Fr Tony, it is with joy that we welcome you back to our community this weekend.

Congratulations

We rejoice with the Lucas and Hadrill families as they celebrated the marriage of Emily and Mitchell yesterday. May they not only be immersed ever more deeply in God's love for them but be witnesses of this love to those with whom they come in contact.

Prayer for Harvest

As the season of harvest starts we commend it to the care of our God, especially in this year of drought:

*Bountiful God,
Giver of grains and seeds, of fruits and berries and all that grows from the earth,
We thank you and bless you for this year's harvest and entrust it to your care.*

*Creator God, for daily bread,
and all who work to bring your harvest home,
we bring our thanks today.*

*Forgive our ingratitude,
we who have so much,
yet waste what you have given.*

*For those whose harvest is poor,
whose crops have withered,
may hope sustain them.*

*Bestow on us
an unaccustomed generosity,
that all might share from your garden
and all might sing your praise.*

Creator God, provider of all we bring our thanks today, that there even can be a harvest.

May our hope at this harvest be a taste of the joy we shall share when we celebrate the final harvest of heaven, that day of days when all that You have begun will be matured to completion.

*Blessed are you Creator God who has given us this harvest.
Bless all those who will be involved in our season of harvest, Amen.*
