Reflection

The God of the Living. ‘Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full’ (psalm response). Confident that those who live in the Lord never see each other for the last time, we remember at each Mass, and in a particular way during the month of November, our relatives and friends and all who have died: ‘welcome them into the light of your face’. We pray for these ‘children of the resurrection’ as others will someday pray for us.

Prison Sunday, 6 November

“During the Year of Mercy in 2016 Pope Francis announced a Jubilee for Prisoners, and since that time the Bishops Commission for Social Justice, Mission and Service, (and prior to that, the Bishops Commission for Pastoral Life), has continued to encourage dioceses and parishes to mark the first Sunday in November in recognition of those in prison and those who provide pastoral support to them.

As Pope Francis noted on 6 November 2016, “...when violence is met with forgiveness, even the hearts of those who have done wrong can be conquered by the love that triumphs over every form of evil. In this way, among the victims and among those who wronged them, God raises up true witnesses and workers of mercy.”

Bishop Tim Norton SVD, Bishop Delegate, Prisoners’ Pastoral Care

Liturgy of Remembering

Next Sunday, 13 November we will have the opportunity to remember in prayer those who have died during the year. Morning tea will be served after the Liturgy of Remembering. Thanks to those who will be able to bring a plate.

The Memorial Book is in the foyer for you to add the names of those for whom we will pray during the month of November.

Remembrance Day

Every year in November, the nation marks the wars that have scarred our past and the bravery of the men and women who fought them. Armistice Day, which falls on Friday, November 11 offer us all a chance to remember not just those who fought, but what they fought for. Let us pray for those who have given their lives for peace in our world. May we work and pray that peace will prevail especially in those countries that are caught up in violence.

Synod Text calls for ‘Church capable of radical inclusion’

“The Holy Spirit is at work in the latest document of the Synod on Synodality, presenters said at a press conference at the Vatican on the guiding text for the next stage of the Synod’s discussions.

The working document, titled Enlarge the Space of Your Tent and known as the Document for the Continental Stage, summarises the reports shared with the Vatican by bishops’ conferences, religious congregations, departments of the Roman Curia, lay movements, and other groups and individuals.

The document notes diverse challenges the Church faces worldwide, such as increased secularisation, forced conversion and religious persecution, lack of structures for people with disabilities, and clericalism.

The document covers issues across a broad spectrum, from the clergy sexual abuse crisis to Christian unity. The text calls for “a Church capable of radical inclusion” and says that many Synod reports raised questions about the inclusion and role of women, young people, the poor, people identifying as LGBTQ, and the divorced and remarried. It also identifies the celebration of the Mass, whether according to the pre-Vatican II missal or the post-Vatican II liturgy, and access to the Eucharist as “knots of conflict” in the Church and cites a great “diversity of opinion” on the subject of priestly ordination for women, which some reports called for and others considered “a closed issue”.
