Reflection 'Peace to this house.' The book of the prophet Isaiah concludes with the promise that God will send peace flowing like a river on all the nations. Today's gospel reminds us that missionaries are always needed to bring this peace to others. May the peace of Christ dwell in our hearts. May the people we meet experience through us the peace referred to in the Jewish greeting, 'shalom! Peace be with you!'

Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way.

Luke 10:3-4

Welcome to the NATSICC Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Liturgy.

Peace be with you, and welcome to this year's celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday - a sacred moment for our Church to gather as one in the love of Christ. This year, we come together under the theme: “Sent Forth in Strength and Hope.” It is Christ who sends us to walk together in faith, grounded in the deep spirituality and culture of First Nations Peoples, strengthened by the Gospel, and filled with hope for the future God is leading us into.

Our Catholic Church is a tapestry woven from many cultures. From the enduring wisdom of the world’s oldest continuing cultures — the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples — to those who have journeyed from distant lands, we are one Body in Christ. In our diversity, we discover richness. In our unity, we find strength. And in every heart, we see the Spirit of God at work. Saint John Paul II once reminded us:

“The Church herself is enriched by the development of different forms of culture... she takes them up in her evangelising mission and adopts them.”

Today, we honour that truth. We celebrate the living story of faith and culture walking hand in hand — of ancient traditions alive in Christ, and of a Church made more whole when all are welcomed, seen, and heard.

Whether you’re gathered in a Parish, school, or community, may the Holy Spirit move among us and send us forth — in the strength of Christ and in the unshakable hope of the Gospel.

Thank you for joining us. May God bless us all on this journey together.

"I have been called to spread the Word of God to grow people in faith with love to bring them into the Kingdom. Jesus showed us how to do this when he was on earth. Now we follow his example." Matthew 13:23 The seeds that fall on good ground are the people who hear and understand

The Holy Spirit is located in the centre of the painting. It is the Spirit working in all of our communities.

Creating this painting helped to make us strong in the Spirit."
