Reflection

The Family of Jesus. Our first parents, Adam and Eve, hid from God after they had sinned. God, however, did not abandon them but sought them out and showed them mercy. Though they had to accept the consequences of their action, God promised that ultimately the forces of evil will be overcome. In Christ, God continues to seek us out and offer us forgiveness. If we accept forgiveness, and resolve to follow God's will, we will always be welcomed back into the family of God.

This prayer based on Psalm 130 is a hopeful prayer for forgiveness.

A Prayer for Forgiveness - Based on Psalm 129—130

I come before you today with a humble and contrite heart.
I cry out to you from the depths of my soul,
asking for your mercy and forgiveness.

If you kept count of my sins, I would die.
But I trust in your mercy and compassion.
You are the source of all wisdom and knowledge.

I wait for your mercy Lord.
I wait in hope, as one waits for the dawn.

May all those who are struggling with sin and temptation,
turn to you with contrite hearts
and receive your mercy and forgiveness.

Amen.

SAINT OF THE DAY: ST EPHREM

St Ephrem was born in Mesopotamia in the early 4th Century. He was a teacher and a deacon who wrote hymns to counteract the heresies rampant at that time. He lived an ascetic and celibate life in his last years and devoted much of his time to prayer and good deeds.

In His Footsteps: Has a song ever moved you so much that it changed or challenged your faith or lifestyle -- for good or bad? How do you feel about the music you sing during liturgy? Put your whole heart and soul into the hymns you sing next. Listen to the words and let them speak to you.

Prayer: Saint Ephrem, sometimes we treat the power of song lightly. Help us to open our hearts and souls to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit given us through music. Amen .
