Prayer Intentions

Pope's Intention:

The mode of priests

That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to solidarity with those who are the poorest.

As Pope Francis has asked: We pray for peace in the world.

We thank God for the recent rain, however, more follow-up rain is needed here and in more Western parts of N.S.W.

For the Children in our Community who will receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation on 18th June.

For the sick and recovering members of our parish: may the Spirit of healing restore them to better health.

For our deceased loved ones - may they rejoice in God's presence forever.

For those who are ill: Gail Peisley, May Platts, Kim Jennings, Lexie Milliner, John Vincent, Daryl White, Betty Cowell, Cindy Simpson, Cheryl Hennessey, Tracey Hampshire, Jackie Gates (Sue R's niece), Margo Birmingham, Brian Kelly (Maureen P's brother), Cheryl May.

'We need lay people who take risks, who dirty their hands, who are not afraid to make mistakes. We need lay people with vision of the future...with the flavour of life's experiences, who are animated by dreams.'

Pope Francis , Rome June 2016

A PRAYER FOR THE EARTH (FROM Pope Francis' Laudato si')

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one. O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes. Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth. Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognise that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light. We thank you for being with us each day. Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for Justice, love and peace. Amen.

"WOMEN HOLD UP HALF THE SKY. THEY CERTAINLY HOLD UP MORE THAN HALF THE CHURCH!"

TO PARISHIONERS OF ST MARY'S BOMBALA

Thank you for your prayers, love, support and care during my recent illness. Everyone's concern has been heart warming.

Many thanks, Lexie.

Thanks

Prayer of the Faithful
Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

Celebrant: On this feast of the Trinity and conscious of God's love for us in Christ, we bring our needs before our heavenly Father.

For all Church people: may we experience the length, breadth and depth of God's love poured into our hearts empowering us to be disciples.

We pray to the Lord:

For peace in our world: may God give understanding to all world leaders and deepen the desire for peace in their hearts and may each one of us be an instrument of peace.

We pray to the Lord:

For our parish families: may God strengthen their commitment and help them to encounter Jesus in their family lives.

We pray to the Lord:

For all children: may God preserve them from all harm and help them to appreciate all the gifts and blessings they have received.

We pray to the Lord:

For those in need: for all who suffer, for the sick, the lonely and the housebound and for the dying and all who care for them: Holy Spirit of comfort, come and strengthen them.

We pray to the Lord:

For our deceased loved ones and for all the faithful departed: may they rejoice forever in the communion of saints.

We pray to the Lord:

For Our Lady's intercession for all our special needs:
We pray, Hail Mary...

Celebrant: Loving God, grant that the Holy Spirit may enlighten our minds, purify our hearts and strengthen our wills so that we may be recognised as true followers of Christ in whose name we make this prayer.

Weekly Prayer Intention

For the global church, that it be an inspiring sign of hope for all humanity.

Daily Prayer Intention

We pray for faith leaders engaged in inter-religious dialogue here and overseas. May their patient listening to one another bear fruit in mutual respect and collaboration.

Good Shepherd Seminarians Appeal

Parish donations were $445. Thank you very much for your generosity once again.

How Shall I Call You Robin Mann

How shall I call you? Maker of heaven, poet of sunset and painter of sky; Father almighty who's running to find us, giving his Son who must suffer and die.

Glory to the father, the Son and the Spirit, let's sing it again and again. Glory to the Father, the Son and the Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

How shall I call you? Lover of children, shepherd and teacher and brother and friend; healer of blind man and healer of leper; you are beginning and middle and end.

Morning Has Broken Eleanor Farjeon
Morning has broken like the first morning,
Black bird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning.
Born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, Praise every morning,
God's recreation of the new day!

OF INTEREST

Lay ministers in rural NSW received specialist formation in liturgical ministry recently when the Aust. Catholic University Centre for Liturgy travelled to Hay in Wilcannia-Forbes Diocese. The two day program, was made possible thanks to a generous grant from one of the Centre's donors. To meet the need for formation for Catholics in rural and regional area, the programme was organised to provide much needed training to lay liturgical ministers in the Diocese, who often have no access to such training and infrequent access to a priest. The programme focused on the underlying need to develop the skills required for effective lay liturgical ministry and leadership for those forms of liturgy that may be led by a layperson. (More information on the noticeboard in the side porch.)

Trinity Song

Father, in my life I see, You are God who walks with me.

You hold my life in Your hands. Close beside you I will stand. I give all my life to You. Help me Father to be true.

Jesus, in my life I see, You are God who walks with me.

You hold my life in Your hands. Close beside you I will stand. I give all my life to You. Help me Father to be true.

Spirit, in my life I see, You are God who walks with me.

You hold my life in Your hands. Close beside you I will stand. I give all my life to You. Help me Father to be true.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God. When I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds thy hands have made, I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee; how great thou art, how great thou art. Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee; how great thou art, how great thou art.

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees; when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gently breeze.

Through the Yearly Cycle, the Church unfolds the entire mystery of Christ and keeps the anniversaries of the saints. ORDINARY TIME is devoted to celebrating the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

Lord Jesus, give us all the grace to live lives of integrity and to humbly repent when we fall short of what we profess so that we may draw others to you, the one who has the words of eternal life.
(Living Word, Archdiocese of Canberra & Goulburn)

MARY MACKILLOP:

Remember, there is, even on this earth, a day of bright reward for all your prayers and faithful perseverance. 5.6.1874
