ST MARY
OF THE CROSS
MACKILLOP

No matter how many or how great be your shortcomings, you shall certainly succeed in the end. 16.2.1874
God loves each one of us notwithstanding our many faults. 14.12.1874
Have courage no matter what your crosses are. 7.5.1890
We must often feel weary and tired yet God brings us through all these things. 5.6.1874

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

FINDING GOD IN OUR WORLD

There are no constraints on when, where or how we pray.

Weekly Prayer Intention - We pray for all the baptised in Christ Jesus, that they will enjoy the freedom of the Spirit and love their neighbour as themselves.

Daily Prayer Intention - We pray for lovers of creation. May they inspire us to cherish the lands, waters, plants and all the creatures of planet earth.

Prayer of the Faithful

CELEBRANT: We bring to the God of hope and consolation the needs of the Church and the world.

READER: That the compassion of Christ be shown to the most needy everywhere in the world.

We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all members of the Plenary Council in the decisions made over the next few weeks.

We pray to the Lord.

We pray that Seminarians and men and women entering religious life may have mentors who live the joy of the Gospel and prepare them wisely for their mission.

We pray to the Lord.

For our deceased relatives and parishioners, especially, Moira Tindale, Athol Reid, Kaylie Hopkins; may the risen Christ bring them to the love that has no end.

We pray to the Lord.

For our Lady's intercession for all our needs and especially for the suffering people of Ukraine.

We pray...Hail Mary.....

CELEBRANT: Loving God, grant that we may experience your constant presence among us and know that life in Christ is stronger than death.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. AMEN

Pope: 'The drama of Cain and Abel unfolding in Ukraine'

Pope Francis did not neglect to issue yet another appeal for war-stricken Ukraine recently, calling for prayers, fasting, and work "so that the paths of peace may find space in the jungle of conflicts." He was addressing ROACO members who are gathered for their plenary assembly in the Vatican. ROACO stands for Reunion of Aid Agencies for the Oriental Churches and it unites funding agencies from countries world-wide in order to provide services such as houses of worship and study, scholarships, and social and health care facilities to struggling areas in the Middle East.

May weapons give way to negotiations.

The Pope acknowledged the attention and care ROACO members have shown to those suffering the conflict "that from Tigray has again wounded Ethiopia and partly neighbouring Eritrea," and he thanked those countries who have received refugees from "the beloved and tormented Ukraine." "There we have returned to the drama of Cain and Abel." In Ukraine, he said, "a life-destroying violence has been unleashed, a luciferous, diabolical violence, to which we believers are called to react with the power of prayer, with the concrete help of charity, with every Christian means so that weapons give way to negotiations."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"It is often during the grind of daily tasks that prayer is said and most welcome."

Michele Frankeni – pray.com.au

My first job was working in an orange juice factory, but I got canned...couldn't concentrate. Next I tried working in a muffler factory but that was too exhausting. My best job was being a musician, but eventually I found I wasn't noteworthy.

END OF FINANCIAL YEAR

END OF FINANCIAL YEAR - From 1 July 2022, tax deductions will no longer be available for Planned Giving in parishes. 5% of Planned Giving in each parish was previously given to the Catholic Schools Building Fund; the only tax deductible component of your offering. That Fund is no longer attached to our parishes. Tax deductibility remains for special Archdiocesan donations; e.g. The Annual Retired Priests Collection and Caritas. In 2022 tax receipts from parishes will no longer be issued. We sincerely thank you for your ongoing financial support in our Gospel mission.

Monthly Medjugorje Message

"Dear children I rejoice with you and thank you for every sacrifice and prayer which you have offered for my intentions. Little children, do not forget that you are important in my plan of salvation of mankind. Return to God and prayer that the Holy Spirit may work in you and through you. Little children, I am with you also in these days when Satan is fighting for war and hatred. Division is strong and evil is at work in man as never before.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

BOMBALA-DELEGATE CATHOLIC PARISH - IN THE MONARO MISSION Country of the Bidwell, Ngarigo and Yuin People

The first Catholics arrived in the area from 1826 as assigned servants (convicts). Scottish, Irish, and later German immigrants built up the presence from 1833. Father Patrick Newman was the first resident priest in 1864. Prior to this, priests came from Queanbeyan and Cooma. Churches were built in Bombala 1867 & 1942 (St Mary's), Delegate 1877 & 1915, (St Joseph's), Cathcart 1878 (St John's) and Corrowong 1894 (St Peter's). Schools opened in 1866-1886 (privately Catholic), Bombala 1886 and Delegate 1921. In 1888 the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart, North Sydney (St Mary MacKillop) arrived and have provided continuous ministry for 134 years. Monaro & South Coast Parishes were transferred from the Sydney Archdiocese to Goulburn Diocese in 1917 and to the Archdiocese of Canberra-Goulburn in 1948. Our first priestly vocation was Fr Ernest Baragry who was ordained as a Missionary of the Sacred Heart in 1941. Delegate was a Parish in its own right from 1954-1972. 2008 saw the welcoming of the World Youth Day Cross & Icon and the Consecration of St Mary's Church Bombala following repairs and restoration. St Joseph's Church Delegate celebrated its Centenary in 2015.

First Reading Is 66:10-14

I will send toward Jerusalem peace like a river.

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.
For thus says the Lord:

Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap.
Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.
And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. v.1

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R.)
2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!'
Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men. (R.)
3. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. (R.)
4. Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. (R.)

Second Reading Gal 6:14-18

The marks I carry on my body are those of Jesus Christ.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this;
the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation Col 3:15. 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live
within you.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 (or shorter form Lk 10:1-9)

Your peace will rest upon him.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit.
He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you."
But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near."
I tell you, that on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.'

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

In Jewish tradition 'Satan' is the name given to the evil spirit who accuses and prosecutes human beings before God, demanding the strongest penalties, unmitigated by Mercy. Jesus had a vision in which he saw 'Satan fall like lightning from Heaven'. Who takes Satan's place?

The answer is the 'Paraclete', a Greek word for an Advocate. This is one of the roles of the Holy Spirit who pleads on our behalf for Mercy which, as Shakespeare put it, then falls on us 'as the gentle rain from Heaven'.

As disciples, we have to imitate the Paraclete, not Satan. We have to temper our drive to see 'the punishment fit the crime'. How often do we relish seeing a person squirm with no offer of a way out, no hint of mercy or forgiveness so that he or she can draw breath,
undo some of the damage done,
and get back on track to a better life?

We might pause for a moment to thank God that our names are not being listed by Satan in an indictment but rather, through the Holy Spirit, are being entered in the Book of the Saved so that we might 'Rejoice, for your names are written in Heaven'.
