Reflection on the Gospel: The Sun of Righteousness

Our prayer can tell us a lot about the image of God we really have – holding a parking spot for us, or stopping rain on the second day of the Australian Open. But, if you were in Syria, your prayerful image of God would be as a Liberator from warfare, of a Saviour from Crimes against Humanity, of a Strengthener in time of torture and impending death.

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises his persecuted followers of every age, 'Your endurance will win your lives'. As Malachi prophesied: 'the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays'.

It is our faith that, out of the darkness of the tomb, the Son of righteousness did rise with healing in His rays, bathing the world with that light which makes the world habitable for human beings. We could take a moment to pray for contemporary persecuted Christians that their faithful endurance will win their lives. Michael Tate

Memorial Service: a beautiful service was organized by Bronnie. Many thanks to those who attended and provided the supper afterwards.

Book of Remembrance: is now open for anyone wishing to have their loved ones included. Envelopes to be placed in the 2nd collection bag please, or given to Brian or Helen.

The Exhibition of Toys, Games & Books of Yester-Year set for the Quilt weekend (23rd November) Is there anyone who is prepared to sit in the Church during the time this is open (9am – 4.30pm)? Please enter your name on the sheet provided at the back of the Church. Thank you.

In keeping with the Archdiocesan Child Protection Policy we are now seeking the signatures of all volunteers on an Acknowledgement of the Archdiocesan Child Protection Code of Conduct.

All volunteers (this means anyone who does anything in the Church, including cleaners and Grounds people) forms must be collected before the end of November, when an audit will be conducted by the Institute Professional Standards and Safeguarding, of the Archdiocese. Forms and the Code are at the back of the Church. Thank you to those who have responded.

An evening of Christmas music and readings with Friar Alessandro Monday 9 December at St Christopher's Cathedral.
