30th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Year B | 27 October 2024

REFLECTION: The readings for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time brings us to the close of the Second Session of the Synod. The readings for this week invite us to recognise and see the great things that the Lord has done for us throughout this graced time, and through all time. This is a source of joy and gratitude. Communion, participation and mission are at the heart of the Synod and also guide our actions as followers of Christ in the time to come as we continue to walk together as the People of God. What will each of us do to advance this mission of compassionate mercy where we are? How do each of us understand what Christ asks of us as individuals and as communities? Each part of the Body of Christ has their vital and unique response and contribution to a. Like Bartimaeus, what do we want Jesus to do for us so that we may see? Each of us is called by our name in baptism and invited to follow Christ in faith and trust. We are not alone. As we continue to share a life of prayer, proclamation and love of neighbour, we pray that we grow in our commitment to listen to what the Spirit is saying and to welcome resurrection. As pilgrims of hope, we give thank for the love of God that lights our way.

Acknowledgement of Country

We acknowledge the Ngunnawal people, as Traditional Owners of the land where we gather today and pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging.

Entrance Antiphon - Ps 104:3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First Reading - Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this:
Shout with joy for Jacob!
Hail the chief of nations!
Proclaim! Praise! Shout:
'The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel!'
See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth;
all of them: the blind and the lame,
women with child, women in labour:
a great company returning here.
They had left in tears,
I will comfort them as I lead them back;
I will guide them to streams of water,
by a smooth path where they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 125

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading - Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation - 2 Timothy 1:10

Alleluia, alleluia!
Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death,
and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

Gospel - Mark 10:46 - 52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.
