Pope pays tribute to grandparents on Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne

“How important grandparents are in the life of the family, to communicate the patrimony of humanity and faith essential for every society!”– tweeted Pope Francis yesterday, Wednesday, July

26, Memoria of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of Mary and grandparents of Jesus, on his Twitter@Pontifex_it account.

“How important is encounter and dialogue between generations, especially within the family.

I would like to greet all the grandmothers and grandfathers, thanking them for their precious presence in families and for the new generations. We greet and give a great applause for all living grandparents, but also for those who are looking at us from Heaven.”

“The prayer of the elderly and of grandparents is a gift for the Church, it's a richness!” he said. It is also a great injection of wisdom for the entire human society, especially for that which is too busy, too grasping, too distracted,” he added.

“How lovely is the encouragement that an old man is able to transmit to a youth in search of the meaning of faith and of life! It is truly the mission of grandparents, the vocation of the elderly. Grandparents' words have something special for young people. And they know it,” he recalled.

St Mary MacKillop Feast Day Tuesday 8th August

Cooma 10am Mass followed by morning tea and Sr. Teresa Keane from Bombala giving a reflection on the charism of Mary MacKillop. Lunch to follow and prayer to conclude. (Lunch is provided) please bring a cake or slice to share at morning tea)

The Word of the Lord

From the 5th/6th August, you will notice a change in the way the readings from the Bible are done. There will be a period of silence after the first reading before the Psalm, a period of silence after the Psalm and a period of silence after the second reading before the Gospel Acclamation.

The silence is to allow you some moments to contemplate what has been read, you may like to pick out a word or a phrase from the reading that has some particular meaning for you. You may like to apply the reading to some challenge you are facing in life. Or, simply, to allow the reading to take root in your heart.

The Gospel Acclamation verse printed on the Bulletin sheets will also be used from that date. We will sing the alleluias, speak the verse and sing the alleluias again.

The readers and commentators have been briefed on the changes.
