Pope Francis, at his Wednesday audience –

“Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning!

“Today we begin a new series of catecheses, which will point our look on the “heart” of the Church, namely, the Eucharist. It’s essential for us Christians to understand well the value and meaning of the Holy Mass, to live ever more fully our relationship with God. We can’t forget the great number of Christians that, in the entire world, in two thousand years of history, endured unto death to defend the Eucharist; and how many again today risk their life to take part in Sunday Mass.

“In the forthcoming catecheses I want to answer some of the important questions on the Eucharist and the Mass, to rediscover, or to discover how the love of God shines through this mystery of the faith. Vatican Council II was strongly animated by the desire to lead Christians to understand the grandeur of the faith and the beauty of the encounter with Christ. Therefore, it was necessary first of all to carry out, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, an appropriate renewal of the Liturgy, because the Church lives continually of it and is renewed thanks to it.

“The Eucharist is a wonderful event in which Jesus Christ, our life, makes Himself present. To take part in the Mass “is to live once again the redemptive Passion and Death of the Lord. The Lord makes Himself present on the altar to be offered to the Father for the salvation of the world”
