Priest's Retreat – 11th – 16th November

Fr James will be away this week on Retreat at Galong Yallambee and Sir William Hudson Masses The monthly Masses will be held on Friday 23rd November, not this week because of the absence of the priests.

Remembrance Day 100 years since end of World War I

"They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them. Lest we forget" In remembering all who died in World War I we also are aware that it wasn't the 'war to end all wars' and for the past hundred years there hasn't been one year of peace in our world. Let us pray to be peacemakers and to "love one another as Christ has loved us."

Pope Francis – The Call to Holiness

I invite you to develop a spirit of holiness, one that will be evident in both your solitude and your service. In this way, every moment of your life can be an expression of self-giving love and a step along the path to holiness.

Fr Mick's Holidays

Fr Mick will be away on holidays from Friday 16th Nov till Friday 14th December. Fr Mick will visit Lourdes in France where he will do a Retreat (and pray for all parishioners). He will also visit Italy – for the pasta and the wine!!!! Fr Mick will remember all parishioners in his Masses along the way as well as in the Masses at Assisi and in St Peter's Basilica in the Vatican.

Fr Adrian Chan, our recently ordained priest will celebrate Mass in Cooma while Fr Mick is away, allowing Fr James to visit the other centres.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

We welcome children who have celebrated their first confession during the week:
Damien and Noah Bond, Lukas Kovacs, Audrey Willett, Riley Hemphill, Hannah Hill, Josephine Neilson, Tyson Beswick, Tammy Benson and Gabrielle Lloyd. Other children will celebrate over the coming weeks.

November Masses Masses will be celebrated to remember the holy souls as requested by all those who have placed names in the remembrance book or through the special envelopes.

Josephite Associates will meet for a pre- Christmas gathering at 2pm Thu 15th Nov at Bev Fitzgerald's home - 55 Egan Street Cooma. New members always welcome.

The Josephite Associates strive to live and promote the vision of St Mary MacKillop- to trust God in all things and to care for the poor.
