Attacks on Nigerian Christians escalating

Attacks on Christians in Nigeria are growing in ferocity and frequency – according to a priest who works with survivors of extremist violence. Father John Bakeni, who coordinates aid for those left destitute by terrorist attacks and internally displaced people (IDPs) in Maiduguri Diocese, northern Nigeria, told Catholic charity Aid to the Church in Need that more savage attacks by militant groups are increasing insecurity among Christians. He said: “The attacks on Christians are growing more flagrant and more aggressive. “The ongoing conflict with Boko Haram and the attacks by predominantly Islamist Fulani shepherds have instilled a feeling of great uncertainty and fear in us Nigerians. “We consider each day we live in safety a blessing because we do not know what will happen the next day.”

Father Bakeni added: “It is very difficult to be a Christian in this part of the world, but our faith encourages us to bravely bear witness to the Gospel.”

Father Bakeni stressed that such extremist attacks are not representative of the views of most Muslims – but he also called on mainstream Muslims to speak out against the attacks.

He said: “Islamism is a distortion of Islam. The silence of the Islamic majority is disturbing. The people should confront Islamism and denounce it.”

Australian Bishops – Adlimina Visit to Rome

Every five years the Bishops travel to Rome to offer a report on the life and mission of the Church in Australia. The Bishops meet with the Pope and Vatican Officials to discuss particular issues – this visit the upcoming Plenary Council will be on the agenda as well as other matters. The Bishops will also spend time on Retreat. The visit lasts from this Sunday till the 16th July. Let us keep them in our prayers, that the Holy Spirit will guide them.

PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER

Come Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

*Give us the courage to tell our stories and
to speak boldly of your truth.*

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

*Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.*

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.

St Mary MacKillop pray for us.
