Parish Giving

As Parish Priest, I wish to thank you all for your many sacrifices, made in order to support us priests and the Parish. During the lockdown when we couldn't have Mass you did not forget us, you found ways to make your contributions to assist us and the Parish. For that I sincerely thank you.

Now that we have to be Covid 19 Safe, we can't have collections as per the "old" way. We have the Collection Boxes stationed around the church. The Archdiocese has proposed that we offer you various ways to make your sacrifices.

This fortnight, we highlight the possibility for you to contribute via Direct Debit, to both the First Collection and the Second Collection. There are information leaflets available explain all the options as well as Direct Debit forms for anyone who wishes to use them.

AND, I am completely supportive of anyone who wishes to continue to make their contributions using cash or the envelopes.

As Parish Priest, I am very grateful for your offerings. As Jesus said about the widow who put in a single coin into the Temple offerings "she has given all she had".

Vatican Instruction on Parish Life Part 3

What is a Parish!

"The historical parish institution (must) not remain a prisoner of immobility or of a worrisome pastoral repetition, but rather, it should put into action that 'outgoing dynamism' that, through collaboration among different parish communities and a reinforced communion among clergy and laity, will orient it effectively toward an evangelizing mission, the task of the entire People of God, that walks through history as the 'family of God' and that, in the synergy of its diverse members, labours for the growth of the entire church body".

Parish Pastoral Council

The current canonical norms[161] leave it to the diocesan Bishop to decide on the establishment of a Pastoral Council in Parishes, but in any case, they may ordinarily be considered as highly recommended, as Pope Francis recalled, "How necessary pastoral councils are! A Bishop cannot guide a Diocese without pastoral A Parish Priest cannot guide without pastoral councils" [162]. The flexibility of the norm permits the adaptation considered apt for the concrete circumstances, as for example, in the case of multiple Parishes entrusted to a single Parish Priest, or those within pastoral units: it is possible in this cases to establish a single Pastoral Council for several Parishes.
