Priests' Retreat

Fr Adrian and Fr Mick will attend the annual priests' retreat in Galong from Monday 23rd November till Friday 27th November.

Advent begins Sunday 29th November

Again, this Advent, we have the Advent reflection booklets which will assist us to keep this period before Christmas as a holy time, a time to ponder, not only the coming feast of the Lord's nativity, but also his coming again into our lives. And we certainly need something this year to help us trust that the Christmas blessings will bring us true peace and joy.

Christians facing persecution in India

With major Hindu nationalist networks announcing plans to launch a campaign against religious conversions—especially in the tribal areas of India—Catholic Church leaders say such a campaign has been going on for a long time and that the move is aimed at dividing people along religious lines for political gains. The supposed charge: Christians are stealthily converting tribals through manipulation. There has been a sudden spike in anti-Christian violence in tribal areas, and Christian leaders have urged the government to crack down on these crimes.

With the Hindu nationalist BJP losing control of both tribal-dominated Chhattisgarh and neighboring Jharkhand states in elections in 2019, Pannalal told ACN, "the campaign is already on. They are trying to whip up passions of the Hindu nationalist cadres. Conversion charges are the easy tool for it."

"Well-oiled machinery is at work. Days before an attack on Christians, newspaper reports against conversion started appearing, followed by TV channel debates, where no Christians are invited to defend themselves. Social media too are used, there are hate speeches, rallies against conversions are staged. When the atmosphere of hate is ripe, then the attack takes place," Pannalal said.

Let us pray for the safety of Christians in India and support CAN = Aid to the Church in Need organisation who work for their protection.
