St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Born on 15th January 1842, in Fitzroy, Melbourne. Child of Scottish immigrants, Flora and Alexander Mac Killop. Flora was a Mac Donald, some of her relations settling in Nimmitabel.

At age twelve, Mary had to go to work to support her struggling family. At fifteen years of age she took up a governess (Teaching) position near Warnambool, Victoria. Mary met Fr Julian Tenison Woods and between them they heard a calling from God to provide education for poor rural children.

On 19th March 1866, Feast of St Joseph, Mary literally founded the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart. God truly blessed this work and, after many difficulties, the Sisters became a great gift for the Church in Australia and for the children in rural areas.

Today, the Sisters work in Peru, South America, Timor Leste, New Zealand as well in all states and territories of Australia.

Mary was beatified in 1995 and canonised a saint in 2010.

A prayer, in the spirit of Mary MacKillop, by Sr Monica Barlow rsj

Spirit of authority, in Jesus' and Mary MacKillop's lives, we have examples of servant leadership. Mentor us in our roles of leading – in families, in the church and in society. Make us attentive to the Church and national leaders endeavouring to keep people safe in this time of pandemic. Help them to take advice from experts as they decide on the best course of action for the health and well-being of all people. Encourage us to support our leader's efforts for the common good. We ask this in the name of Christ. Amen.

We welcome Fr Bernie Patterson who celebrates Mass with us in Cooma Parish this weekend.

Confirmation in Cooma next weekend.

There will be Mass on Saturday evening at 6pm as well as the two Masses on Sunday, 10am and 5pm.

Ministry / Service Reflection Sessions

Far from the Ministry/Service mechanics, there is a vital requirement for formation, that of reason for the ministry/service. If the ministry/service stays at the level of activity, people can grow tired, people can feel that they are not really appreciated, people can fail to see the deeper meaning. To address these and other issues there will be Reflection Sessions offered to all involved in Parish Ministry/Service. At this stage, there will be only one session that people will be asked to attend. There will be a few choices to assist you in being able to attend. Ushers, acolytes, church cleaners, flower arrangers, linen washers, readers, maintenance workers, catechists, children's liturgy facilitators, Parish Councilors, Parish Finance Committee members, musicians and singers, are all invited to “come aside and rest a while” in the Lord. You will be led in personal reflection and affirmed as a person first, you will experience the love of the Lord and instead of thinking whether you are a ‘Martha’ or a ‘Mary’, you will know yourself valued by the Lord and our Parish.
