Child Protection Code of Conduct

Every three years we renew the Acknowledgement of the Child Protection Code of Conduct for volunteers.

Please complete a copy of the acknowledgement after Mass today and place in folder provided or take a copy and return completed to the Parish Office on Mon, Wed or Thu. Thank you, Sharon.

The Mass – a Sacred meal

“Do this in memory of me.”

What does that mean? To assist us to deepen our love for the Mass, we will be led in a Jewish Passover/Seder meal. Rahel and Mark Landrum from Sydney will lead us and help us to make many connections with Jesus and his actions at the Last Supper.

Friday 3rd June at the Uniting Church Hall in Soho Street, Cooma. Commencing at 5:30pm it won't be a late night out in the cold.

Volunteers are needed to help set up the hall and to cook legs of lamb (provided for you) and roast vegetables (provided for you). If you can assist, please place your name on the lists at the front of the church. An offering for Mark and Rahel's missionary work will be collected at the door on the night.

Appeal for Education of Seminarians

“Good Shepherd” Appeal

Please take an envelope and contribute to this important appeal. The Archdiocese has three seminarians at the moment and is committed to their care and training.

Pope Francis- Praying for Peace

“Peace is never obtained with weapons.”

Pope Francis reiterates his appeal for peace in so many war-afflicted countries and asks all believers to pray that leaders be attuned to the wish of their suffering people who know that weapons do not bring peace.

Pope Francis has again appealed for peace, entrusting his prayers to Our Lady. “Spiritually kneeling before the Virgin, I entrust to her ardent desire for peace of so many people, who in various parts of the world, suffer the senseless disaster of war,” he said. The Pope was speaking to men and women of goodwill during his remarks after the Regina Coeli prayer in St Peter's Square on a Sunday recently.

Noting that at this hour, many faithful gather around a venerated image of Mary in the Shrine of Pompeii, to address to her the supplication that flowed from the heart of the Blessed Bartolo Longo, he said he too kneels before the Virgin in supplication for the gift of peace.

“To the Blessed Virgin, I present in particular the sufferings of the Ukrainian people. In the face of the madness of war, let us continue, please, to pray the Rosary for peace every day.”

And he continued asking for prayers for leaders of nations: “That they may not lose their ‘feel’ for their people who want peace, and know well that weapons will never bring it.”

“believers” Pope St John Paul II began using this term that includes all people who worship a deity. All believers can pray to their own god and be united in their desires.
