Catholic Missions- Today is World Missions Sunday.

The "Missions" are part of our Catholic way of life. From our earliest years we have been encouraged to remember the Missions. The Missions consist of missionaries who leave their own home and country and go to work sharing the Good News with people in far off lands. The Missions include the people to whom the missionaries go to. The needs of the Missions are the same as they have always been. Sharing the Good News is both ministering to the daily needs of people for food, clothing and shelter as well as catechising them with God's love.

Working Bee (Cooma) next Saturday 29th Oct

Commencing at 8am, we will concentrate on the bush garden on Murray St – weeding, pruning, removal of rubbish and planting new shrubs. Please bring tools and barrows. BBQ to end the work at 11:30am

Be warned – double lines on Murray Street

Last Sunday the police were waiting after the 10:00am Mass. Sadly, two of our good parishioners were penalised. If you park on the church side of Murray Street it is illegal to do a u-turn and cross the double lines. If you intend on parking on the school side of Murray Street, it is illegal to cross the double lines to park your car. If you park in the church grounds you are able to cross the double lines to enter and exit the church.

From Pope Francis

The World Synod on Synodality

"The dream is to transform the ordinary life of the Church through the participation and involvement of everyone, to renew its life and help Christian communities be ever more faithful to the Gospel and therefore ever more missionary. After the diocesan, national, and continental stages, such a great opportunity must not be missed by using the same old ways of doing or looking at things, whether progressive or traditionalist, as they both end up focusing only on single issues rooted in past and self-referential ideological battles. This synodal process marks a continuity with Vatican II, but it is not without risks. Let us ask ourselves if we, in the Church, start with God and his loving gaze upon us. We are always tempted to start from ourselves rather than from God, to put our own agendas before the Gospel, to let ourselves be caught up in the winds of worldliness in order to chase after the fashions of the moment or to turn our back on the time that Providence has granted us, in order to retrace our steps. The key to understanding the Synod is "starting from the loving gaze of God with the joy that flows from feeling loved, welcomed, and accompanied by Him. The Church exists to proclaim the Gospel. And the Church's structures, always subject to reform, exist only for this aim. The process, which began in 2021 at the local Church level, has led to 112 episcopal conferences, out of 114, to carry out extended discernment on what has emerged from listening to the people of God."
