Project Compassion

Thank you to those who have sent in their donations. Please keep them coming so we can finalise this year’s appeal. The world’s largest charitable appeal really does make life changing possible in needy countries around the world. It is not a matter of giving food and clothing, but a hand-up so that the people can make good decisions for the rest of their lives.

Temporary One Priest Mass Schedule

is included with this Bulletin. It is in draft form so please if you think it could be done differently, send in your suggestions. I expect the one priest schedule to be operational for about six months until we receive a replacement priest.

From Pope Francis’ Easter night homily The women saw. The first proclamation of the resurrection was not a statement to be unpacked, but a sign to be contemplated. In a burial ground, near a grave, in a place where everything should be orderly and peaceful, the women “found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they went in, they did not find the body” (vv. 2-3). Easter begins by upsetting our expectations. It comes with the gift of a hope that surprises and amazes us. Yet it is not easy to welcome that gift. At times – we must admit – this hope does not find a place in our hearts. Like the women in the Gospel, we are overtaken by questions and doubts, and our first reaction before the unexpected sign is one of fear: “They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground” (v. 5). All too often we look at life and reality with downcast eyes; we fix our gaze only on this passing day, disenchanted by the future, concerned only with ourselves and our needs, settled into the prison of our apathy, even as we keep complaining that things will never change. In this way, we halt before the tomb of resignation and fatalism; we bury the joy of living. Yet tonight the Lord wants to give us different eyes, alive with hope that fear, pain and death will not have the last word over us. Thanks to Jesus’ paschal mystery, we can make the leap from nothingness to life. “Death will no longer be able to rob our life”, for that, life is now completely and eternally embraced by the boundless love of God. True, death can fill us with dread; it can paralyze us. But the Lord is risen! Let us lift up our gaze, remove the veil of sadness and sorrow from our eyes, and open our hearts to the hope that God brings!

“Thank you, Fr. Adrian”

This weekend, we farewell and thank Fr Adrian for his service and ministry among us. Fr Adrian has been appointed to St Patrick’s, Bega. Please join farewell morning tea for Fr Adrian this Sunday in Cooma, after the 10:00am Mass.
