Catholic Missions- World Missions Sunday.

The “Missions” are part of our Catholic way of life. The needs of the Missions are the same as they have always been. Sharing the Good News is both ministering to the daily needs of people for food, clothing and shelter as well as catechising them with God’s love.

Be warned – double lines on Murray Street

Last Sunday the police were waiting after the 10:00am Mass. Sadly, two of our good parishioners were penalised. If you park on the church side of Murray Street it is illegal to do a u-turn and cross the double lines. If you intend on parking on the school side of Murray Street, it is illegal to cross the double lines to park your car. If you park in the church grounds you are able to cross the double lines to enter and exit the church.

←CHURCH DONATIONS: we have an additional Eftpos terminal available on trial basis. This device allows you to select amount $10, $20, $30 or $50, or select a combination of these.

Pope Francis on discernment

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on spiritual discernment, we now consider the importance of interpreting, in the light of God’s provident care, our own life story. Through prayer and spiritual insight, we can learn to discern the thread of God’s grace running through our lives. Taking stock of our personal history in this way can make us aware of negative attitudes harmful for our spiritual growth, but also open our eyes to the often hidden events and encounters that quietly reveal the Lord’s loving plan for our eternal happiness. The lives of the saints also shed light upon our personal path to holiness.

In the Confessions, Saint Augustine shared his gradual understanding of how God mysteriously led him to discover and embrace the truth that alone satisfies the deepest desires of our heart. Saint Ignatius Loyola, another great spiritual guide, drew upon his own journey of conversion in order to teach us how to discern God’s voice speaking deep within us, guiding our steps through life, and calling us to ever deeper union with himself.

9 NOVEMBER Marriage Preparation Program
