Pope Francis – Discernment, what is it,
how does it impact our lives?

Dear brothers and sisters: Today we begin a new series of catecheses dealing with discernment, the process of making sound decisions about the meaning and direction of our lives. In the Gospels, Jesus uses everyday discernment practised by fishermen and merchants to teach the importance of wisely choosing to live a life in accordance with God's will. Authentic discernment calls for knowledge, insight and experience but also the wisdom of the heart, firm commitment and unremitting effort. As an exercise of our God-given freedom, spiritual discernment seeks to know our place in the Creator's plan for ourselves and for our world. For our decisions, good or evil, can make the earth either, as God intends, a magnificent garden or a lifeless desert. True discernment, born of our loving relationship with God and our human freedom, brings with it a deep spiritual joy and fulfilment. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten and guide us in our daily efforts to live lives of holiness, wisdom and fidelity to the saving truth of the Gospel.

First Holy Communion – Cooma

We congratulate and pray for:

Atticus and Clementine Battye, Lilianna Rowling,
Dian Jacobs and Thomas Hill who celebrate their First Holy Communion this Sunday.

Another group of young parishioners will celebrate on Sunday 18th September.

We thank Mrs Kath Kovacs, Religious Education Co-ordinator of St Patrick's Parish School for her dedication to the children and their families.

Thank You

Cooma Parish thanks the music ministry – Joanne Brown, Leah baker, Sue McPhie, Francis Kelly, Bernie Sullivan, Paul Mackay and Lou Mackay for their ministry at Margaret Hassall's funeral, it was a blessing for the family. Margie would have been looking down on them and assisting them.

Thank You

I wish to thank the group of good cooks who provide our last Sunday of the month luncheons. Joan Simpson, Philippa Turner, Tarian Dixon, Suja Tessa with help from others work a little miracle each time and there is always enough for everybody. These luncheons are a very good way to meet new parishioners.
