THE GOULBURN MISSION
 [Mission Established 2012]
St Mary's Parish
Crookwell
 [Parish Established 1882]

13th Sunday Ordinary Time Yr B –1 July 2018

Introduction:

Today we celebrate a birthday, that of John the Baptist. The gift he gives us is to reveal how we can come closer to Christ

Entrance Antiphon:

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

Responsorial Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. v.2

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Right I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Left Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

Right The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

Readings: 1/ Wis 1:13-15, 2:23-24; 2/ Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15; Gospel: Mk 5:21-43.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

Vocation Prayer:

Gracious and loving God

We come before you humbly asking for your blessing. Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.

Look with favour on our parishes,

And bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call

To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love,

And especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission. Amen

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

You are about to undertake the precious task of bringing the holy Eucharist to our friends who cannot join us because of sickness or disability. May you be inspired at the thought that through you Jesus is continuing his compassionate work among us.

End of Term Lunch

All catechists, former catechists and friends are invited to the Hibernian Bistro on Tuesday, 3rd July at 12 noon. Everyone welcome

Reflection: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus treats with respect and concern two 'untouchables': the haemorrhaging woman and the young girl's corpse.

This double story shows us not only his compassion for those who are sick and his power over death but also his willingness to go beyond social and religious prohibitions in the service of others. The sick and desperate woman overcomes her social inhibitions in order to touch Jesus, hoping that mere contact with his garments will ensure her healing. Her faith urges her to act. In the case of Jairus' daughter, the child herself cannot ask. Instead, it is her father, who as a synagogue official was probably deeply suspicious of Jesus, who pleads for her. In both cases it is faith which is the key to healing.

Have you ever been unable to help yourself; totally dependent on another person for your needs?

Do you feel any special bond with any of the characters in this gospel? In what ways do you associate with them?

For Jesus to lay hands upon a young woman of twelve years of age (old enough to be betrothed) would have been seen as a scandalous act. Jesus breaks through the restrictions of social norm to bring life.

- To have physical contact with women who were menstruating or with corpses meant that the person who had touched them became 'unclean' and therefore unable to participate in the religious life of Israel. Here Jesus contravenes the Jewish law to bring wholeness and life.
