Prayer for Vocations

Gracious and loving God

We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.

Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.

Look with favour on our parishes,

And bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call

To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love,

And especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

As you take this holy sacrament to our sick and housebound brothers and sisters who cannot be here with us, share with them too the Lord's love for all those who are vulnerable and in need.

Reflection 4 Sunday

This text is the continuation of last week's gospel, where Jesus announces his mission in his home town. His program is to bring hope to the hopeless and inclusion to the outcast. Here we learn of how his mission is received: initial approval very quickly turns to rejection! What Jesus is pointing out is that God acts unexpectedly and that his love and care are available to all people, not just to the people of Israel, even though their needs may be great. One of their own has dared to challenge their preconceptions, and they vent their disapproval with violence, a violence that will reach its culmination on the cross. Jesus leaves Nazareth and never returns. The remaining action in the Gospel of Luke occurs in Capernaum and on the road to Jerusalem, where the final rejection will come to completion.

Have you ever had your opinions or comments treated with derision or disdain? Perhaps you were saying something you knew others may not want to hear. How did you feel? Were you able to hold your ground or was your opinion simply 'hustled' out?

- Have you ever had the experience of being ridiculed or rejected because of your faith? How do you respond to this?

- Who are the prophets of our own time who speak words we may not like to hear? How are they sometimes treated?

- Elijah was one of the greatest prophets of Israel. He lived around 850 years before Jesus and was famed for resisting the idolatry of the time and for his preaching and wonder-working. Elisha was his successor.

- Both Syria and Sidon were close neighbours of Israel, but they worshipped pagan gods and were not part of the chosen people. Despite this, both Elijah and Elisha worked wonders in God's name among them. They reached out to the Gentiles when they found people of faith there. (The Summit)
