THE GOULBURN

MISSION

[Mission Established 2012]

St Mary's Parish
Crookwell

[Parish Established 1882]

8th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME Yr C/1
3rd March 2019

Entrance Antiphon:

The Lord became my protector. He brought me out to a place of freedom; he saved me because he delighted in me.

Responsorial Psalm: 91:2-3. 13-16. R. See v.2

Response:

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Right: It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night.

Left: The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Right: Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

Response:

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

Readings: 1 Sir 27:4-7

2 1 Cor 15:54-58

Gospel: Lk 6:39-45

Communion Antiphon: (only said if NO MUSIC)

I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me, sing psalms to the name of the Lord Most High.

Prayer for Vocations:

Christ the Good Shepherd, high priest of the Church,
God the Holy Spirit, source of wisdom and understanding,
Guide young people as they discern their vocation,
Give them the wisdom to discover your plan for them,
And courage to embrace your will.
Give to the Church wise and holy priests, deacons and religious sisters and brothers,
So that your Gospel may be taken to the ends of the earth,
Your flock built up in faith and hope and love,
and your name praised without ceasing. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

May God bless you as you take Jesus to our sisters and brothers who, through sickness or old age, are unable to be with us today; and may your coming renew in them confidence in the love and care that God lavishes upon us.

Reflection 8 Sunday

Exploring The Word

Luke continues with his examination of the new order ushered in by discipleship and turns to a very personal dimension of what it means to be a follower of Christ. The 'fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher'. Jesus offers himself as a model of non-judgement. This, after all, belongs only to God. There are echoes here of last week's text: 'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge and you will not be judged yourselves; grant pardon and you will be pardoned.' The disciple must recognise their own shortcomings and work tirelessly to rectify these so that what issues forth from their hearts are the good fruits that only true goodness of heart can produce.

Have you ever been the victim of someone's unfair judgement or criticism? How did this make you feel? Have you ever been too quick to judge someone else or been forced to confront your own failings? What steps did you take to make changes?

From earliest times, the church has provided an avenue to encourage the faithful to recognise and deal with our human frailty and weakness. The sacrament of reconciliation provides an opportunity to confess our failings before God, to seek his forgiveness for them and to become reconciled again in his love.

Interior repentance is a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart, an end of sin, a turning away from evil ... At the same time it entails the desire and resolution to change one's life, with hope in God's mercy and trust in the help of his grace.
