Entrance Antiphon:

O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations
he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: 144:8-13. R. cf. v.1

R I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Left: The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.

Right: All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might,
O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign.

Left: I will praise your name for ever, my
king and my God.

Prayer for Vocations:

God our Father, Lord of the Harvest, through the intercessions of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, Saint Junipero Serra, Mary MacKillop and all the saints, We pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life. May your disciples respond generously when You call them into the ordained ministry and consecrated life in the Church.

Thank you, Lord for those who serve us now as dedicated bishops, priests, deacons and religious. May they be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry for which they have been chosen. Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

The Eucharist you take to our sick friends is the love of Christ ever present among us. May you be the visible sign to our brothers and sisters of the love of Christ made manifest in the Eucharist.

Could the following families please collect there pews from the Peelwood Church: Ford, Evans, McGuire, Hogan and King. If anyone else has one there could you please collect it also.

Good Shepherd Sunday Appeal – Collection for Formation of our Seminarians:
This weekend we especially give thanks for the vocations that have sprung from our own communities – those young men whose families and lives are planted in our local parishes and who, God willing, will return as ordained priests to serve here. Please give a generous donation today or begin a monthly donation to support the education of our seminarians. Special envelopes are provided in the church or donations can be made on-line through the website www.cgatholic.org.au.

Reflection: Fifth Sunday Easter

The Gospel of John is often divided into two sections: the Book of Signs, detailing the public ministry of Jesus aimed at bringing people to belief, and the Book of Glory, which outlines the events leading to his death and resurrection. One part of that concluding section of the gospel describes the events of his final night with his followers. It is too late now for those who have not recognised that Jesus is the Messiah. He closets himself with those who do believe and gives them extended instruction on how they are to continue his mission after he is gone. Both today's reading and next week's gospel come from this section of the text.

Jesus is telling his disciples not just that they must love each other, but that they must love as he has loved. This moves beyond the commandment known to the Jews to love one's neighbour as oneself. The love that Jesus showed was the total self-giving and selfless love that led to his death on the cross—his glorification. It is this love that reveals the love of God, who is love. This new and difficult love is to be the true mark of a Christian in a truly Christian community. How do you understand this commandment to love as Jesus loved?

The title 'Son of Man' is one that is often used by Jesus in the gospels to describe himself.

- In the Gospel of John, when Jesus speaks of being glorified or exalted, he is referring to his death on the cross. For John, this is the moment of supreme triumph for Jesus.
- This text comes from a section of John's Gospel known as the Farewell Discourse, which is delivered by Jesus to his friends just before his arrest. Here, Judas has already gone out to betray him. (The Summit)
