Gracious and loving God
We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.
Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.
Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life. Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.
We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Exploring The Word 16 Sunday Ord. Time

On our first reading of this text, many of us would feel sympathy with Martha, who is left to do all the work. But a more careful reading of the text uncovers the real problem. Martha is ready 'to welcome Jesus into her house'. And yet she becomes so preoccupied with the fuss of getting food ready that she is failing to do exactly what she set out to do: offer welcome to the person of Jesus. Mary, on the other hand, is attentive to the words and teachings of Jesus. Who has offered the true welcome? The responses of these two women are not in opposition, but rather indicate two ways of acting that should become integrated in how we relate to others: attentive friendship and generous and practical service. The gospel of the Good Samaritan from last week shows us a model of selfless service. Here we are presented with the other side of the story: the need to also be attentive and to listen to the word of God so that we don't get caught up in activities and preoccupations that are ultimately not important.

The attitude taken by Mary in this text is one of discipleship. To sit at the feet of the Master is to be a follower or disciple.

In this text, Jesus is not rebuking Martha because of her acts of service. Far from it! The real point of his criticism is that she has allowed herself to be distracted by unimportant things instead of concentrating on what really matters: God!

Spend some time each day praying without words. Make yourself still and close your eyes. Fix your heart on God, who dwells within you. If you find yourself being distracted, don't worry but turn your mind back to God. (The Summit)
