THE GOULBURN MISSION

[Mission Established 2012]

St Mary's Parish Crookwell

[Parish Established 1882]

Entrance Antiphon: O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me! You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay.

Responsorial Psalm: 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

Response:

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Right: You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.' To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night

Left: You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning. In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades.

Right: Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants.

Left: In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

Readings: 1 / Ecc.1:2,2:21-23 2/ Col. 3:1-5.9-11

Gospel:

Luke 12:32-48

Communion Antiphon:

(only to be said if there is NO MUSIC during the Mass)

You have given us, O Lord, bread from heaven,
endowed with all delights and sweetness in ever taste.

Prayer for Vocations:

God of all creation,
through Baptism you gift us with new life.
You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
So that we may truly become the witnesses of
your love.
Bless all those you call: all single and married
people
All priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers
May we all become builders of your kingdom
and sacraments of your love.
As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ
through living our baptismal call We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Having celebrated the Eucharist and partaken
of the bread of life, go from this gathering to our brothers and sisters at home and unable to join us bring to them the bread of life and the assurance of our prayers for them.

Exploring The Word

18 Sun.Ord.Time

Jesus finds himself in a situation

where he is asked to render judgment on a claim made by one brother against another. In a sense, this is a recognition of Jesus' authority because a rabbi was expected to be able to make judgments on all facets of law. According to the law, the firstborn son inherited a double portion of his father's inheritance—that is, twice as much as that received by each of his brothers (Deuteronomy 21:17).

Perhaps this man's brother was not keeping the law.
But Jesus refuses to be drawn into such a debate because this is not what his mission is about. He has come to establish a new situation, where women and men are drawn into God's reign. The parable of the unwise man makes the point. A person's life is not made secure by what they own. Better instead to be storing up riches in heaven than in the here and now.

According to the law of Israel, if a person had more than they needed, there was a requirement to share the excess with those who did not have enough. The goods of the earth belong to all.

- One of the major themes of Luke's Gospel is the right use of wealth and money.
- The Acts of the Apostles indicates that the early church members shared their wealth so that each would have what they needed (Acts 2:44–45).
- St John Chrysostom wrote, 'Not to enable the poor to share in our goods is to steal from them and deprive them of life. The goods we possess are not ours but theirs.'

Dom Helder Camara said: I used to think when I was a child that Christ might have been exaggerating when he warned about the danger of wealth. Today I know better. I know how very hard it is to be rich and still keep the milk of human kindness. Money has a dangerous way of putting scales on one's eyes, a dangerous way of freezing people's hands, eyes, lips and hearts. (The Summit)
