19 Sunday Ordinary Time Yr C 10th

Entrance Antiphon Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

Responsorial Psalm 32:1. 12. 18-20. 22. R. v.12

Response: Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own

Left: Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.
They are happy, whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen as his own Right: The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Left: Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you

(only to be said if there is NO MUSIC during the Mass) O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord,

Prayer for Vocations:

Good Shepherd God
Help our people to know their vocation in life; be with them as they prepare for it.
Help us to recognise the presence of your wisdom in the men and women of our Parish.
Some you will call to be priests and deacons others to be consecrated in religious life.
Help them to overcome fear, unblock ears and still the noises that drown out your call.
Give them the Grace
To respond generously and labour faithfully In caring for this world and all its people.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Dear friends, as you bring the body of our Lord to our sick and housebound brothers and sisters, reassure them of our prayer and of our love for them in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Exploring The Word 19 Sun.Ord.Time

The longer version of today's gospel opens with a sublime promise: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.' There is such intimacy in these words, not only in the relationship of Jesus to his 'little flock' but in the promise of the kingdom given by the Father. This intimate relationship and promise do not take away our responsibility, however.

On the contrary! Our response to this promise—whether we put our faith in it or whether we doubt it—will determine our response to the demands that Jesus makes of us: detachment from possessions, readiness for the Lord when he comes, and integrity of life. To us has been given a great deal, and a great deal will be demanded in return. We must be attentive to the requirements of the Master.

Jesus promised that he would come again at the end of time and bring into being the new creation of God's reign. The earliest church communities believed that the Second Coming would occur very soon, but as time passed, they modified this belief with the realisation that while they awaited Christ's return in glory, they had to live the life of discipleship in the here and now. The church today still holds this belief, and it is at the heart of our Creed: 'He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead.' This expectation requires that we remain ready.

The imagery in this text of the vigilant servants who remain ready for their master's return at any hour of the night reminds us to live expectantly and to be prepared for what is to come. Reflect on your journey towards Jesus so far. Are you now living expectantly as you prepare for what is to come?
