Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is a program of gift giving to help children in need who live in impoverished countries. The idea is to gather together small gifts which will fit into a 'Shoe Box' to help brighten the lives of these children. Some gift suggestions include – something to wear, something to love, something special, something for school, something to play with, something for person hygiene. You may also include a short note or a photo. Alternatively, donations may be made to assist with the postage of the filled boxes. Each box costs $10 to post. It would be appreciated if all donations are finalized by the 27th October. Boxes and brochures are available at the back of the church & Duncombe & Co

Exploring The Word

25 Sunday, reflection

At first reading, this text is puzzling. How can dishonesty so rewarded? The action in text is easier to understand when we know something of how commerce was conducted at the time. According to Jewish Law, it was not permissible to charge interest. To get around this, the practice developed of increasing the original debt to cover what would have been a normal interest rate. What the cunning steward has done is to reduce the debt to the level of the original loan. The Master will be paid his due according to the Law, but no more. If the Master complained of this action, his sin would come to light.

The real criticism in this text is directed to those who have been entrusted with the riches of God's kingdom and have not used them well. The point is that all who are called to share the riches of the kingdom must commit themselves to careful administration of those inestimable treasures. This is much more important than administering the riches of this world.

- In what ways can money be used in our world to create barriers between people or to break down barriers between people?
- Pope John Paul II often spoke of aspiring to 'be more' rather than to 'have more'? Pope Francis has said, 'Money has to serve, not to rule.' What do you think they meant by these comments? Explore the implications.

MAKING CONNECTIONS.

Are you the sort of person on whom others can rely, whether it is for little things or great things?

- On what are your real friendships based?
- What is the single most important thing in your life?
- Use your talents for others this week. Be good stewards of creation and act in an ecologically sound way.
