St Mary’s Parish
Crookwell

[Parish Established 1882]

Pentecost Sunday Yr B 20th May 2018

Entrance Antiphon:

The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 103:1. 24. 29-31. 34. R. v.30
(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Right Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches.

Left You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth.

Right May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

Readings: 1/ Acts 2:1-11; 2/ Gal 5:16-25 Gospel:
Jn 15:26-27.

Communion Antiphon:

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

Vocation Prayer:

Good Shepherd God

Help our people to know their vocation in life; be with them as they prepare for it.

Help us to recognise the presence of your wisdom in the men and women of our Parish.

Some you will call to be priests and deacons others to be consecrated in religious life.

Help them to overcome fear, unblock ears and still the noises that drown out your call.

Give them the Grace

to respond generously and labour faithfully

In caring for this world and all its people.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

As you take Christ's presence in this holy sacrament to those who are unable to be with us today, do so with hearts ablaze with love for him who has called and sent you into the world

Reflection: Pentecost Sunday

This text again comes from the farewell discourse of Jesus to the disciples in John's Gospel. In it he promises to send the Advocate to them. An advocate is one who stands by in times of trial or difficulty, defending, guiding and instructing. In many ways the Spirit is the ongoing presence of Jesus with his disciples in all ages and these texts give an eloquent instruction on the reason for God's gift of the Spirit. The Spirit will witness to the truth which comes from the Father through the Son.

The Spirit will guide the Church's future understandings as they gradually unfold. The Spirit will be the link between the Father, the now absent Son and the ongoing unfolding of the complete truth. The Spirit will inspire the followers of Jesus to continue his mission and will provide assistance and guidance in achieving this. No single set of human beings could completely know the implications of the Christ event. It is the Advocate, the Spirit of Truth sent by Jesus from the Father, who will accompany the Church through the whole of history, guiding it towards the complete truth.

The reason why the disciples were in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost was that they were celebrating the Jewish Harvest Festival which occurs fifty days after the Passover.

This festival also celebrated the covenant made by God with the people of Israel on Mt Sinai.

• The Christian feast of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter Sunday and marks the culmination and closure of the Lent-Easter-Pentecost cycle.

Red is the colour which is often associated with the Spirit. Red vestments are worn at Pentecost and red is often associated with Confirmation. Red symbolises the intense love or 'fire' of the Holy Spirit. Other symbols of the Spirit are tongues of flame, wind and a white dove. Each of these conveys something of the mystery of the Spirit of God which is beyond human understanding.
