Dear Parishioners,

It's been seven weeks since no gatherings, no sacraments, no Eucharist, no public worship in our churches. In fact, Catholics are living through an astonishing period. But it has led to great creativity on social networks, with Masses on Facebook, YouTube and Zoom.

The daily masses I celebrate is for each one of you, your family, our parish family, especially, those elderly, sick, bedridden, struggling in one way or other, those undergoing surgery, those suffering from cancer, those who fighting with depression especially our youth, those who mourn the death of a loved one.

May I ask you to spend few extra moments in prayer for others, especially the least, last or lost and who have no one to pray for. For all our frontline workers, especially our teachers, healthcare workers, police and essential workforce, for those affected by COVID 19, for our country and the entire world. Give a phone call, if possible, to a member of our parish or text or email, to extent your care and concern for them. Inspire each other, pray for each other, stay safe, healthy and blessed.

Please be assured of my prayers for you at this time and please do not hesitate to contact me (joshy.kurien@cg.org.au) or the parish office for any assistance. May God bless you and keep you.

Fr Joshy

A lawyer's dog, running around town unleashed, heads for a butcher shop and steals a roast. The butcher goes to the lawyer's office and asks, "If a dog running unleashed steals a piece of meat from my store, do I have a right to demand payment for the meat from the dog's owner?" The lawyer answers, "Absolutely." "Then you owe me $8.50. Your dog was loose and stole a roast from me today." The lawyer, without a word, writes the butcher a check for $8.50. The butcher, with a feeling of satisfaction, leaves. Three days later, the butcher finds a bill from the lawyer for $100-- for consultation.
